

SERMON NOTES—August 11, 2024

GOD'S COMPASSION AND JUSTICE GO HAND
IN HAND
MICAH

GOD IS COMPASSIONATE AND FORGIVES THE SINS OF THOSE WHO REPENT

- Micah 1:2-7

WE TEND TO UNDERESTIMATE OUR _____

GOD'S WARNINGS TO ISRAEL ARE ACTUALLY ACTS OF
_____

- 2 Peter 3:9
- Deuteronomy 5:29
- Micah 4:1-5

THE FUTURE HOPE OF _____

- Micah 7:18-20

GOD'S STEADFAST _____ AND _____

- Hebrews 10:17

WE SHOULD DWELL ON THE _____ OF GOD

- 1 John 2:1-2

GOD IS COMPASSIONATE AND FORGIVES THE SINS OF THOSE WHO REPENT

QUESTIONS FOR
SMALL GROUPS/PERSONAL REFLECTION
August 11, 2024

1. How does the Book of Micah offer hope in the midst of God's judgment? What points to Christ?
2. How have you witnessed leaders who are happy to offer promises of God's protection to anyone who can pay them?
3. How might your life be different if your very name meant "who is a God like You"?
4. How have you experienced God's compassion on the heels of your repentance?
5. How have you underestimated the evil of our world?
6. How do you delight in showing mercy to others?
7. What promises of God will you dwell on this week?